MOST MEMORABLE DESTINATION

I love Arras, a city in northern France that was rebuilt after war damage and is known for a network of ancient tunnels used by soldiers in World War I (pictured). Last time my husband and I visited we stayed with a very welcoming Australian-French couple, Rodney and Philippe, at La Maison d'Hotes La Corne d'Or. Arras is a fantastic jumping-off spot to the nearby battlefields, which we toured with the knowledgeable Phil Hora of Sacred Ground Tours.

TRAVEL TIP

To my husband's amusement, I spreadsheet our entire holiday and plot what we're doing each day and where we'll eat. We can then arrive and enjoy ourselves. And make sure you never leave your laptop on the Eurostar; you'll never see it again.

COMING UP

I've been on a tour for my latest book *Unf*ck Your Finances*, which has just been sold into Britain and The Netherlands. I'm also looking forward to a holiday in Hong Kong at the end of the year.
